“ We can say very positive things about Monica. We initially hired her as a consultant to build up www.gramercyandco.com, starting from our initial idea (sketched out on paper), through multiple iterations, to a final product. She did all the database architecture, theming, coding, and reporting for our e-commerce site. We liked her so much that we offered her a role as a partner in the firm with equity. less ”

“ Monica at is one of the most creative and knowledgeable web developers and consultants our company has ever worked with. She developed our website project, with a sharp eye for both business functionality and design, strengthening our brand and increasing our online presence in our industry. As a result, our group has become a respected leader in the UK music industry. I highly recommend Monica for her work and inspiration. less ”
